PILATES STUDIO OFFERINGS

“Lani is the expert you need when performance matters.”

– Mamamia

Elevate your Pilates studio by integrating bespoke nutrition programs and offerings to empower members and drive holistic wellbeing.

Through strategic, evidence-based nutrition and lifestyle programs, workshops and 1:1 support, Lani helps Pilates studios enhance member engagement with whole-health care.

From education and resources to live events, these are designed to complement your current studio offerings.

Beyond the studio walls, knowledge learned is invaluable information members will carry with them for life.

“Her knowledge is exceptional across such a broad scope of women’s health, teen wellbeing, and sports nutrition and what sets her apart is the way she delivers it.

She has a rare ability to translate complex science into clear, practical, easy-to-understand guidance that feels empowering rather than overwhelming.”

– Paula B

Pilates Studio Offerings

Nutrition workshops & events

Custom workshops and events covering topics on everything from menopause and metabolism to understanding your female hormonal health in a way that is easy for members to understand with actionable steps they can take.

Nutrition supplement add-ons

Lani works closely with a number of leading wellness brands and is often able to bring complementary supplements and samples to events and workshops for members to try. Additionally, for studios looking to expand their offering and become a wholesale stockist of wellness supplements, Lani works closely with SWIISH and can help facilitate this.

Complete wellness programs & retreats

Expert-led programs helping members take care of the whole. Programs with Lani combine a series of workshops with 1:1 support. Ideal when paired with a movement component led by the studio.

1:1 personalised nutrition support

Take member wellbeing to the next level by offering 1:1 nutrition support with Lani. This is delivered through in-person or online consults, as well as ongoing text-based and voice note support on nutrition and lifestyle to accommodate all unique needs and circumstances. This can be integrated into your studio offerings, or a simple referral pathway can be created.

About Lani

Lani Finau is one of Sydney's leading experts in women's health, respected Clinical Nutritionist, and proud founder of the 'Think Well Project' (a school-based nutrition program) and 'Practitioner to Pro' (an ANTA-recognised development program for natural health students and clinicians).

With a Bachelor of Health Science in Nutritional and Dietetic Medicine, as well as over 7 years in the industry, she's not only a highly sought-after professional in her Sydney-based clinic, but has also been featured in major publications like Mamamia, Refinery29, news.com.au, 9Honey, Body+Soul, The Daily Telegraph – and more.

Having delivered workshops to hundreds of Pilates studio members and worked with some of the biggest brands and businesses in the industry, such as Eucalyptus and SWISH, her expertise extends to key areas including performance, metabolic health, endometriosis, PCOS, chronic fatigue, menopause, and beyond.

She's passionate about the unique nutritional demands of growing athletes and serves as the Head of Sports Nutrition for the NSW Tonga Netball Association, and has worked with numerous sporting groups and associations to improve performance both on and off the court.
